

Elopements

And other love stories

PRICELIST

Each package has a reservation fee of 40% of the total package fee. I always include a contract to sign with the booking. The remaining package fee is paid the latest a month before the elopement day.

I have asked the couples I have photographed, if they were surprised when they saw their gallery of photos. Yes they were. By a number of things.

How many parts of the day that they had forgotten about. Being so full of emotions and anticipation, left them unable to take it all in. They loved seeing the context of the situation, the emotions of everyone involved, and also the tiny gazes, smiles and surprises along the day. Many of them also mentioned that they would have wished for more hours of coverage.
